Libya Quake Toll May Run as High as 250

BENGHAZI, Libya (AP) — A series of three shattering earthquakes left more than four-fifths of the coastal town of Al Marj in ruins today and hundreds were believed dead or injured.

Radio Libya put casualties at 250 dead and 100 injured. A U. S. Air Force spokesman said unconfirmed reports indicated 500 were killed and 1,000 injured. The Air Force sent 11 air transports loaded with relief supplies from its base near Tripoli.

Most of the casualties apparently came in the first shock Thursday afternoon. Two more quakes struck this morning as rescue work was in full swing.

Hospitals in Al Marj (Barce) and Benghazi, 55 miles to the southwest, were filled with the injured.

Rescue workers dug through the debris for others feared trapped or killed. U. S. and British military forces and Libyan soldiers and police rushed food and tents to survivors.

The quakes centered in an area of 20 square miles in and around Al Marj, which has a population of 50,000.

The first shock struck at sundown Thursday as most persons were sitting down to their evening meals.

People fled into the streets. Buildings and houses toppled, trapping many in the ruins.

A second shock came at 7:30 a. m. as relief workers toiled in the ruins. The third came an hour and a half later.

British troops took charge of rescue operations after an appeal for help from local Libyan authorities.

British aid was flown from the Benghazi area and from Cyprus. A British-American control center was established in Al Marj.

U. S. relief supplies were flown in from the Air Force's Wheelus base near Tripoli, 300 miles west of the quake area.

The Libyan government declared an emergency throughout the country.

U. S. planes rushed medical personnel and supplies from the Air Force's Wheelus base near Tripoli, 300 miles west of the quake area.

Pirate Raid Is Claimed by Cuba

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Cuban authorities have arrested eight men and accused them of seizing two fishing boats in a pirate raid, Havana radio said today.

The broadcast quoted a communique of the Cuban navy as saying the men admitted attacking the fishing boats Feb. 13 after departing from Florida.

The broadcast did not say when the men were arrested and made no mention of their nationalities. Last week, the radio quoted fisherman aboard the boats as saying three raiders were Americans.

The broadcast did not explain how the arrests were made.

Minnesota to Decide on Governor

By ADOLPH JOHNSON

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—A trial without precedent in the history of Minnesota opens in the courthouse here Monday—a trial that will help determine who was elected governor of Minnesota last November.

Three district judges appointed by the State Supreme Court will listen to arguments and pass upon between 1,500 and 2,000 disputed ballots culled from 96,000 challenged in recount proceedings started by former Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag (role-vahg).

Rolvaag was the Democratic candidate last November when voters divided so evenly that Republican incumbent Elmer L. Anderson wound up the winner by 138 votes. The recount, pending a decision on disputed ballots, put Rolvaag in front by 133.

Anderson remains in office pending a decision.

This race marks the first time a statewide recount has reached the trial stage in Minnesota.

The disputed ballots have been packaged in 24 categories.

The largest category contains examples in which voters used "X" marks for some races and check marks for others. Another class involves ballots marked both for Anderson and for William Braatz, the industrial government candidate who got less than one per cent of the total vote. A companion category includes ballots marked for Rolvaag and Braatz.

Democrats challenged 7,000 absentee ballot envelopes for lack of notarial seals, lack of witnesses, lack of postmarks, and other reasons.

Among them are the envelopes which contained the ballots of Agriculture Secretary and Mrs. Orville L. Freeman. The Democratic inspectors said their envelopes contained no date of attestation.

Attorneys for the two sides hope for a decision from the three-judge panel about March 20. The loser can appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Sunday Sales Measure Is All But Dead

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The way was clear for a vote in the Arkansas House today on a controversial anti-gambling bill, but whether the measure would be called up was problematical.

Ashley County Rep. N. B. Murphy said Thursday he still plans to bring the bill to a vote despite adoption of crippling amendments Wednesday. But he would not say when.

The House hamstringing another bill—to restrict Sunday sales—by amendment Thursday.

It adopted several amendments, but the critical one removed all grocery items, including fresh meat, canned goods and prepared foods, from the prohibition of the bill.

"That amendment killed this bill," declared Rep. Glenn Walther of Pulaski County who is handling the measure in the House for its author, Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs.

Rep. Nathan Schoenfeld of Hot Springs was a leader in the fight to strip the bill by amendment. Schoenfeld's proposal—which would have cleared the way for sale of just about anything except automobiles, furniture and clothing—was defeated.

Walther indicated he still plans to bring the bill to a vote. Operation of the so-called discount houses would be hampered by the amendment measure and several speakers said the bill was aimed at these establishments.

A promised bill to oust Winthrop Rockefeller from the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission by reorganizing the agency was not introduced again Thursday.

Rep. L. H. Autry of Mississippi County is collecting signatures on the bill.

The Senate passed a bill to the House Sen. Nathan Coulter's bill to permit Arkansas AM&N College (for Negroes) to establish a junior college branch in Southwest Arkansas.

The vote was 19-3 and indicated trouble for any effort to appropriate money for the project. An appropriation would need 27 votes to pass the Senate.

Coulter said the bill was a first step in what might become a system of AM&N branches and the admonished opponents, "If we don't educate them (Negroes), we'll have to feed them. If they get an education they're going to go out and earn some money and MIGS FIRE ON SHRIMP BOAT — Two Cuban based MIG jet fighters fired rockets in the vicinity of an American shrimp boat in the Florida Straits and were chased off by U.S. interceptors, the Defense Department has announced. The boat, the Ala from Fort Myers, Fla., and its two crewmen were not hit. A Pentagon spokesman said there were four jets but only two fired their rockets.

Influenza Cases Are Increasing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Influenza cases in the United States continue to increase and medical authorities are urging vaccinations to combat the spreading outbreaks.

The Communicable Disease Center of the U. S. Public Health Service said today information compiled weekly from its 100 reporting cities across the nation show 799 pneumonia-influenza deaths through the week ending Feb. 16. That is 54 deaths over the previous week.

The death toll is showing a continued marked increase in the South and Middle Atlantic states, the center said. The flu outbreaks reached epidemic proportions in areas along the Atlantic seaboard Jan. 15, and then moved westward.

States reporting flu outbreaks for the first time during the week which ended Feb. 16 were Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana, Tennessee, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Michigan and New Jersey, the center said.

Asian flu has been confirmed in Maryland, Michigan, Kansas, North Carolina, New York, Illinois, Massachusetts, Ohio and the District of Columbia.

A spokesman for the center said there is no cure as such for Asian flu, only treatment. The health agency is urging prevention through vaccination.

No figures are available for comparing the current epidemic with that of 1957, when Asian flu hit this nation. But the spokesman said the death toll is not expected to approach the 1957 total because some immunity now has been built up.

Cold in State Complicates Flu Battle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold wave moved into Arkansas Thursday, complicating the work of physicians and hospitals contending with Asian flu and respiratory infections that have reached epidemic proportions in some sections of the state.

Health officials saw no immediate possibility of a let-up in the number of cases.

A second Garland County school closed Thursday because of the number of cases of the ailment.

Supt. Clyde Nichols said 15 per cent of the 450 students in the Carter-Morning Star High School were ill and three teachers were unable to report to classes. The Mountain Lake school closed Tuesday. Both schools were scheduled to re-open Monday.

Flu, in all its miserable forms, continued to strike thousands in the state Thursday, including Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who had to cancel and appearance at a plant dedication in Searcy.

Twenty more persons were hospitalized in Union County, where 40 per cent of the 49,000 residents have some form of the disease.

Epidemic proportions of the disease were reported in El Dorado and at West Memphis, first place to report the Asian variety.

The Camden hospital with a capacity crowd of 144 patients, closed its doors to visitors. Ouachita County officials reported 1,000 cases of the ailment.

Cuba Warned U.S. Will Not Take 'Attacks'

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has laid down an unmistakable warning that U.S. firepower will blast any Cuban-based warships or planes that dare attack American vessels or aircraft.

But Kennedy indicated Thursday that, for the time being at least, American jet fighters and Navy craft will be restrained from chasing attackers back to Cuba to punish them.

If Wednesday's MIG strafing of a wallowing shrimp boat develops into a pattern of attacks, the President may then give the signal for "hot pursuit."

Several hours after Kennedy uttered the warning at a news conference, the Cuban government "rejected and denied categorically" the charge that its jets poured rocket fire near the disabled shrimp boat Ala in the Florida Straits Wednesday afternoon.

And Prime Minister Fidel Castro was expected to have something to say about it in a televised address tonight.

Once before, when a U2 was shot down at the peak of the Cuban crisis last fall, a stern U.S. warning apparently deterred any more anti-aircraft missile firings on U.S. reconnaissance planes operating over Cuba.

Congressional critics were not stilled by Kennedy's orders that "all necessary action" be taken.

Shrimp Boat Thought Aid Had Come

By CHRIS MACGILL

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A plane dipped low over a leaking, disabled American shrimp boat, and its two-man crew thought help had come at last.

Moments later, as the fishermen waved frantically for assistance, the pilot opened fire.

"We thought it was an ordinary plane," said Benjamin Washington, 27, still sounding incredulous nearly 24 hours after the incident. "We tried to signal them down."

Paris Jackson, captain of the 67-foot Fort Myers shrimp, Ala., and Washington, its mate, told newsmen Thursday about the attack by Cuba-based MIG fighter planes.

It happened about 5 p. m. Wednesday on the high seas about 60 miles north of Cuba.

A MIG appeared, passed by, circled a nearby island and returned.

"We thought he was landing. Then he made one spray," the "spray," the shrimpers said, appeared to them to be a burst of machinegun fire. The defense department said rockets were used. The Cuban government denied there was an attack of any kind.

Three more jets appeared and one of them joined in the firing, said the crewmen. The shots went into the water about 200 yards from the Ala's port bow, they reported.

Both men said, they were certain there were no rockets.

The two stayed on deck while the MIGs circled for 15 minutes, passing low enough for the men to see the pilots' faces and to spot an emblem which "looked like a big round thing with an eagle in it."

Were they scared? "Yes, sir!" Jackson said he still hadn't recovered from the fright.

The boat's engine failed Sunday. That made its radio and pumps useless and all the two crewmen could do was wait for help.

Jackson and Washington, weary from three days of battling their leaky boat and the strain of their experience, were brought in by the Coast Guard.

Facing Blast, Norphlet Is Evacuated

NORPHLET, Ark. (AP) — This south Arkansas town of 700 was evacuated today while firemen put out a fire that started in a train-truck collision and threatened to blow up a box car of ammonium nitrate.

The fire was out and the danger was reported over shortly before 10 a. m. The residents of Norphlet probably will be allowed to go back to their homes later today, officers said.

The Missouri Pacific train collided with a gasoline truck at 5:37 a. m. at an intersection in Norphlet's business district. The truck driver and two trainmen were slightly injured.

The engine and 12 cars derailed and the flame lit the box car loaded with the highly explosive chemical.

Yellow smoke streamed from the ammonium nitrate car and railroad officials said the granular chemical was melting. Finally the bottom burned out of the box car and the load of nitrate was jumped onto the tracks.

Railroad officials said the chemical is dangerous only when it is burning in a closed place where gas can build up and cause an explosion.

A fire truck from the Monsanto Chemical Co. in El Dorado was joined by fire companies from Norphlet, El Dorado, Smackover and Camden.

Firemen, police and residents withdrew soon after the fire started and an explosion seemed imminent.

They withdrew about three miles, and when the gas seemed to be escaping harmlessly the firemen returned to battle the fire.

They found the engine and the gasoline truck charred and the black smoke from the burning gasoline mixing with the yellow fumes of the ammonium nitrate.

Missouri Pacific officials said some of the train's 74 cars were loaded with chemicals bound from Little Rock from the Monsanto plant in El Dorado.

Only one car was loaded with ammonium nitrate.

"We understand it's the same stuff that blew up Texas City," said Deputy Sheriff Paul Williams

"BOX LUNCH" PREPARATION—Small part of 18-ton food supply for the 20-man 1963 American Mt. Everest Expedition is separated in Seattle, Wash., before packing in 15,000 lightweight paper boxes. Freeze-dried and "instant" foods in the special containers include such delicacies as fresh tasting (when reconstituted) chicken, spinach, hamburger, corn, pork chops, bananas, peaches and shrimp. Powdered foods range from syrup to milk. Many of the items will appear one day on food market shelves.

UP IN THE VALLEY—The Europa Bridge, destined to be the biggest bridge in Europe, inches its way across the Wipp Valley near Innsbruck, Austria. In background are peaks of the Nordketten Range.

pay the state some taxes." Coulet's bill would let the AM&N board select the site for the new facility, subject to approval of the Commission on Coordination of Higher Education Finance.

Cleveland County Rep. Raymond Mays withdrew his bill to cut the work week for firemen from 72 to 56 hours after the House passed Sebastian County Rep. Bernice Kizer's bill to set a minimum salary for firemen of $300 a month.

Rep. W. L. Ward of Lee County was refused permission to withdraw from the Judiciary Committee his bill to require integrated restaurants to post signs declaring their status.

The House passed a bill to appropriate $142,000 in state aid for county fairs. This appropriation was defeated twice in 1961 special sessions, but it passed unanimously Thursday.

The Welfare Department's $72.6 million annual appropriation was held up after Pope County Rep.
Clyde Kinslow amended it to raise the salaries of 360 county visitors from $3,700 to $4,000 a year.

The compromise appropriation for the Game and Fish Commission sailed through on an 80-1 vote.
The bill would give the commission the budget it sought from the Legislative Council, restoring cuts made by the council and the Joint Budget Committee.

Reps. Hugh Hackler of Baxter County and Jim Linder of Phillips County introduced the bill after the commission agreed to change some policies which met disfavor among legislators.

The House adopted, subject to Senate concurrence, a resolution designating the song "Arkansas"
by Eva Ware Barnett of Little Rock as the official state song.

Arkansas became the state song in 1917 but it was replaced in 1949 by "The Arkansas Traveler" after Mrs. Barnett sued the state for infringement on copyright.

Mrs. Barnett recently offered to give the copyright to the state.

The House also passed bills to permit construction of a proposed Revenue Building off the capitol grounds and to provide for special red and white license tags for House members.

It defeated a bill to shift primary elections from July to May.

The Senate passed a bill to permit the defendant in a capital case to waive a jury trial after Sen. John O. Moore of Texarkana pushed through an amendment striking a provision making a non-jury trial mandatory in cases in which a guilty plea is entered.

A bill to require screening of automobile graveyards located within sight of a paved highway was defeated in the Senate.

The Senate received Thursday duplicates of bills introduced in the House Wednesday to permit the state to spend up to $150,000 from surplus revenues to match money put up by cities and counties for purchase of voting machines under Amendment 50.

The House received the Arkansas Municipal League's highway turnback fund bill under sponsorship of Rep. Chadd Durrett of Union County. It would give cities an estimated $1,750,000 more money a year.

The bill would increase the cities' share of net road revenues, after counties get their share from 11.76 to 15.79 per cent and reduce the percentage which goes to the state highway fund from 88.24 to 84.21.

The Highway Commission has indicated it will oppose this kind of bill.

Pulaski County Rep. Glenn Walter introduced bills to give municipal bus line tax relief by cutting the bus license fee from $50 to $15 and providing for a refund of the 6 1/2 Cent per gallon state tax on bus fuel.

Other new House bills would create a special division at the Benton State Hospital for care of mentally retarded adults, permit cities to issue tax-supported bonds for construction of harbor facilities and outlaw use of stickers to vote for write-in candidates.

Both House were to reconvene at 10 a.m. Friday.

versity of Arkansas board of trustees approved Thursday an $861-300 contract with Harmon Con-animal science center.

The new contract will add there wings to the building. Construction is underway.

Charge Changed to Litterbug

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP)—
When a patrolman charged Claxton G. Stancil Jr., 26, of Greenville, with reckless driving, Stancil became so angry he tore the ticket to bits and threw it on the ground.

Officer R. E. Tayloe then handed Stancil another ticket, this one charging him with being a litter-bug.

Judge Charles Whedbee of City Recorder's Court heard the two charges Thursday. He found Stancil innocent of the reckless driving charge, but fined him $25 for being a litterbug.

Cuba Warned

by the military forces to prevent any more attacks like the strafing of the helpless shrimp boat.

Several suggested the incident discredited the administration's contention that the Soviet-built MIGs are in Cuba for defensive, rather than offensive operations against the United States. Kennedy said he saw no reason to change his view.

Kennedy said he had instructed the Pentagon to make "any necessary revisions in standing orders so as to insure that action will be taken against any vessel or aircraft" which strikes at a
"American ship or plane over Caribbean international waters."

He didn't elaborate, and defense officials refused to discuss either the standing orders or the changes.

But competent sources said it was quite clear the President is broadening the present rules under which U.S. fighter planes and Navy vessels are empowered to open fire on approaching aircraft or warships if they appear bent on attacking U.S. territory.

Furthermore, these sources said, the President's orders probably will result in placing more fast jets on strip alert, ready to take off.

Navy and Marine Phantom jets are poised at all times at the Key West Naval Air Station, 90 miles across the Florida Straits from Cuba's north coast. At Homestead
Air Force Base south of Miami, Air Force F104 jets also are on alert.

The Navy operates combat air patrols in the sensitive area between the Florida Keys and Cuba.
Jet fighters fly with weapons cocked. There now may be more such patrols. Powerful radar scans the Cuban coast constantly.

Asked at his news conference if an assault similar to the one on the shrimp boat might have been responsible for the disappearance earlier this month of the U.S. tanker Sulphur Queen, Kennedy said he had no information indicating this.

"But certainly we would examine it," he said.

The Sulphur Queen disappeared with 39 crewmen aboard.

There is much the United States is not sure of—and may never know—about the attack on the shrimp boat.

"I don't think we know the full reasons behind this attack on this vessel, whether it was a deliberate decision by the Cuban government or a decision by the pilots involved," Kennedy said.

He noted that the 67-foot boat was lying in the water without flying any flag.

Rep. Powell Screaming Racial Bias

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell has accused Sen. John J. Williams of racial bias. But Williams says how government money is spent—not race—is the issue in his attack on the Negro congressman.

Powell accused Williams, R-Del., at a news conference Wednesday of following "the Hitler concept" in purchasing property that the New York Democrat said is under a restriction limiting resale to "Aryans." Asked if he felt there was a racial motive to Williams' criticism, Powell declared emphatically, "yes."

The senator swung back at Powell Wednesday night. "I never have and never will refer to any man's race, religion or nationality in discussing a case on the Senate floor or off it," Williams told a newsman.

"I do intend to see that anyone, whether a member of Congress or not, gives a proper accounting of how government money is spent," he said. "We're going to keep right on the issue and will not be diverted."

In his session with newsmen, Powell said Williams has voted consistently against civil rights. He also distributed an excerpt from a property deed to a house Powell said Williams bought in 1952 in Rehoboth Beach, Del.

According to the excerpt, the deed contained a restriction against the sale or leasing of the property "to any person not of the Aryan (Nordic) race."

Reached Wednesday night at his home, Williams said he bought the property in 1952, still lives there and has no intention of leaving. He said he has never examined the deed and has no idea if it contains a restriction.

But even if it does, Williams said, it would have no effect because the Supreme Court has outlawed such provisions.

The battle began Feb. 5 when Williams charged in a Senate speech that the government was "shoveling out" money for activities sponsored or promoted by Powell. He also accused Powell of income tax delinquency and criticized him for using State Department funds for a European trip last summer with two women staff members.

Powell, who was in Puerto Rico when Williams leveled his blast, fired back Wednesday before a battery of newsmen. He said a Williams charge that the Housing and Home Finance Administration had lent Powell or groups associated with him $10.8 million for three housing projects was incorrect.

The HHFA deals in mortgage insurance, not in loans, Powell said, and the transactions Williams referred to were handled by a foundation he started in honor of his father. He said he got out of the foundation a year ago.

"I have always paid my taxes promptly," said Powell. The years in question, he said, are the subject of pending court action and it cannot be determined what, if anything, he owes until the court decides.

As for last summer's trip—according to Williams a "European vacation for Mr. Powell and two lady friends where he attended all the night spots of the European capitals"—Powell said the women with him were staff members of his House Education Committee. Powell said he used State Department counterpart funds as do other members of Congress.

Stewardesses are trained to be gracious and attractive hostesses. Part of this training involves high grooming standards that you can follow, too. Primarily, it is the practice of neatness that is the key. The stewardess (left) arrives home, her uniform still spotless and her hair and make-up impeccable. For her guests, she sets a charming table (right) with fresh linen and gleaming silver. She keeps her apartment and kitchen as neat as her jet galley.

Light and airy shoes in ice-cream pastels are new for spring. Sling pump (top left) comes in colored pastels and pastel kidskins. Oval toe adds a graceful touch to natural strap sling-back pump (top right). Trim and heel are patent leather. Ribbon-like white leather trims the flats (lower left), and ties in bow at front. Straps entwine and pull together the sequin serpent pump (lower right). It comes in pastels and black. All designs are by Capezio.

MARTHA WASN'T

JEALOUS OF GEORGE

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: One night last year when my husband and I were doing the dinner dishes, we fell to discussing our old boy and girl friends. I began reminiscing about a boy who wanted to marry me. As a consequence we have been fighting ever since.

I did not want the other boy then or now, as I have repeatedly told my husband. But still he fumes and fusses and sneers and snarls until there's no living with him. I have been a good wife and mother these whole six years of our marriage, but I was ready to call quite yesterday.

After eating his dinner in moody silence, he blurted out, "You're a no-good. I'm ashamed to say you are the mother of my children!" And with that, he grabbed his hat and coat and stamped off, banging the front door after him.

He had his girls too but that he says is a man's prerogative. My boy friends were at least respectable. I sincerely love my husband, but put up with his faults and say nothing, but he wants me to be perfect. Also, I hate to think of divorcing because of our two children whom we both love very much. But I just can't go on like this. Help if you can.—J.

Dear J.: The problem of old sweethearts has ever plagued husbands and wives. In reading the papers of Martha and George Washington (he was born 231 years ago today), it was comforting to learn that these two wonderful people were confronted with a similar situation, Martha having been a young and attractive widow and the General a handsome heartbreaker as well as great soldier, when they married.

It interested me that the only love letter of his known to exist was not addressed to his wife. The recipient, Sally Fairfax, was one of many beautiful women in Washington's life, the last being Mrs. Stamps.

Nathaniel Greene, widow of one of his generals.

Instead of ranting and raving (as your husband has done with less cause), Mrs. Washington sent the General a letter, as it were, his love as he in hers. If your husband is Mr. Greene's arms, both being excellent dancers.

Your man might well take a tip from Martha, a mature woman who loved her mate and, understanding him, felt as secure in his arms as a child. He would be proud that other men had once found you attractive. Tell him so. A man of his temperament must be dealt with firmly. Don't argue—say, "Grow up, my dear!" and mean it. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Divorce and separations," and pass along for him to read.

Dear Helen: I am 13 and my brother 15. We would like to give our father and mother a 25th wedding anniversary party. How can we earn the money to do this? We love them very much. Ellen

Dear Ellen: A heart and willing hands, not money, are the main requisites. Make the anniversary a surprise party. Plan a menu of your parents' favorite dishes. Ask family friends and relatives to each bring one course. If possible, get your father and mother out of the house on the day of the party. A friend or tensibly be giving them a party member of the family could ostentatiously at the last moment, bring them home.

This would give you and your brother time to decorate the table. The more you do yourselves, the happier your parents will be. Meanwhile, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Turn Your Spare Time Into Cash."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Victor Borge Fans Wish He Would Play

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Some Victor Borge fans wish he'd stop fooling around with long-hair music and stick to the comedy. Some Borge fans deplore sadly that such a talented musician, such a fine pianist, wastes all that time on funny stuff.

Borge, a lively man who has drawn a fine head on the mass American audience, doesn't mind the wails a bit. For one thing, he realizes that both groups like to watch him. And he also realizes that the largest group of all—between the extremes—thinks his curious, special blend of good music and bright comedy is just great.

"You can't satisfy everybody," he shrugs. "And I have to do what I feel happy and comfortable doing."

Borge, who has been through the television mill and had made a number of specials over the years, will be seen in one of his infrequent specials on Sunday night on ABC.

Borge's Sunday special is certainly unique. It was taped in the Philharmonic Hall of Lincoln Center. It enlists the talents of clown Marcel Marceau and classical pianist Leonid Hambro.

Borge's personal recipe for balancing himself delicately and successfully between two far-apart stools without danger of crashing to disaster is logic.

"Everything must be logical," Borge explained. "It is not difficult to get laughs. There are many ways to do this, starting with making funny faces. But you can't keep that up forever."

"You have to be comfortable, too, and I'm not comfortable unless there's logic in it. Some people say that the business where I fall off the piano bench at the end of a run is ridiculous. I say it's not ridiculous—I actually did lose my balance and fall off the bench when I was practicing."

on the state system. He wouldn't say whether the commission would ask Gov. Orval E. Faubus to veto such bills.

"We just hope they won't pass," he said.

Dr. Anders' Dilemma

By Henry and Sylvia Lieferant

Copyright © 1958 by Henry Lieferant

THE STORY: Nancy Horton, a student nurse, and Rhoda Bascomb represent two paths to the future for David Anders. He likes Nancy, but being an intern David cannot date her because of a rule of the hospital. Dr. Bascomb, Rhoda's father, has offered a position in surgery to Anders. Dr. Cornish, head of the hospital, wants David to continue in medicine.

CHAPTER V

It was Wednesday again, the day before Thursday, and Thursday held a special significance as the joint free day, when David, stepping out of the elevator, saw Nancy halfway down the corridor. She was talking to Tony Thorne, who, lithe and correct as always, was facing the elevator. Accordingly he could not see Nancy's face, but by the left of her head, the proud squaring off of her shoulders, he was led to conclude that it was merely a casual conversation between doctor and nurse. His only reaction was to envy Thorne, who as Visiting Assistant to Bascomb was untroubled by Rule Seven. He could chat openly with any student nurse he pleased.

Yet some nicely of conscience caused David to retreat into a corner before he should be seen. He was idly looking down into the ambulance court as Thorne came up behind him.

"I was just looking for you, Anders. The nurse said she thought you were in D."

Bearcats on Road to 3rd NCAA Title

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's mighty Bearcats, rebounding brilliantly from their first loss of the season, have taken the first big step toward an unprecedented third straight NCAA basketball championship.
Cincinnati, national champions the last two seasons and third in the country the two seasons before that, secured the Missouri Valley Conference title and a spot in the NCAA Midwest regional tourney by blasting North Texas State 91-61 Thursday night.
The victory boosted the top-ranked Bearcats' season record to 20-1 and their conference mark to 9-1.
Cincinnati was making its first start since Wichita snapped the Bearcats' 37-game winning string 65-64 in Wichita Saturday.
In other major games, New York University held off Notre Dame 80-79 in a Madison Square Garden ratchet of two NCAA-bound teams. Each has accepted an at-large berth in the tourney.

Britain Has New Missile Punch Ready

By LAWRENCE MALKIN
LONDON (AP)—In the shadow of controversy over loss of the Sky bolt, Britain has quietly put into operation a new missile to boost the deterrent punch of its V-bomber force.
It is called the Blue Steel, and the Royal Air Force claims it is invulnerable, at least for the next two or three years.
Classed as a "stand-off weapon" like the abortive Skybolt, the Blue Steel enables the RAF's bombers to launch a rocket with a nuclear warhead of megaton size—equivalent to a million tons of TNT—while flying 100 to 150 miles from the target.
The British make no secret of the fact that they would have preferred the Skybolt, scrapped by the United States after defense officials calculated that its performance would not be worth its $2.5-billion development cost. The Skybolt was to have had a range of about 1,000 miles.
The Blue Steel is really a small, supersonic, pilotless jet plane. But it is smaller, faster and believed to fly higher than the bombers launching it. These advantages should make it that much more difficult for the Soviets to track and hit.
The missile's speed is secret but is generally believed to be 1,100 miles an hour. This increases by a couple of hundred miles at the 10-mile altitude where the Blue Steel would be launched.
The Blue Steel is 35 feet long with a body diameter of 4 feet and wingspan of 13 feet. It is powered by a liquid-fueled engine with 18,000 pounds thrust, suggesting that it may be able to climb even higher than its original launching altitude before it drops on target.

Also Ran to Figure in Race Today

Hot Springs, Ark. (AP)—An "also ran" in one of last Saturday's twin inaugurations was expected to figure prominently in the $3,500 top event on the George Washington Birthday nine-race card at Oaklawn Park today.
Ten sprinters were named for the 5 1/2 furlong allowance event.
The one on which chief interest may be centered is the F. O. Akin Estate's Predetermined, who finished fourth behind Bouncer, Troa and Killoqua in a section of the inaugural after taking a brief lead into the stretch.
W. Hal Bishop will send out one of his frequent entries, this one composed of Bone Builder, top-weighted at 120 pounds, and Irish War, both making their second starts of the meeting.
Others entered are B. H. Wise's Deacon Shine, J. J. Wise's Tullo, Marion H. Van Berg's Sea Nurse, Mrs. Lee Morgan's Count Rose, John D. Askew's Touch of Venus, Pete Maxwell's Dale Calvo and Rex Klump's Jace Brown.
Predetermined, who earned consideration off his top effort in the inaugural, won only two of his 18 starts last year, but was out of the money in only six. He will carry 113 pounds, including jockey Roy Cave.
Bishop, the nation's leading trainer last year, is expected to make a strong bid with Bone Builder and Irish War. The former was a creditable third behind Cargo and River Doc in Monday's feature and Irish War showed early speed in a section of the Inaugural.
One of the Bishop horses will be ridden by Robert Nono.
The Bishop - Nono combination scored their first winner of the meeting Tuesday when Leslie Girl took the night cap. Bishop was the leading trainer here last year and Nono was runner-up for riding honors.
Deacon Shine and Tullo have the best records among the others.
In the $3,000 featured Little Rock Purse Thursday, I. W. Spicer's Galveston Guy went to the front at the first turn and out-gamed Deepwood Stable's Lord Scott in a long stretch to come in first.
Galveston Guy, with jockey Van Hook astride, crossed the finish line with a head margin over Lukasz and Kozzra's Sun of Suspense.
Lord Scott, 1 1/2 lengths farther back in the field of nine, saved show honors. Other Brother and Nest Egg, W. Hal Bishop entries, placed fourth and fifth respectively.
Jockey Billy Phelps took Sun of Suspense to the outside and moved up with a rush in the home stretch, but failed to overtake Galveston Guy.
Galveston Guy covered the 5 1/2 furlongs of fast track in 1:12 3-5 and paid $15, $8 and $4.60. He was third best choice of the crowd of 6,258.
Total handle was $371,709.

Arkansas State Is Defeated

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—Arkansas State slumped in the second half, hitting only 28 per cent of its field goals, and was defeated 71-57 in basketball by The Citadel Thursday night.
The Cadets popped in 50 per cent of their shots from the floor for the game.
Both teams were evenly matched in the first half, with Arkansas hitting 48.1 per cent from the field to 48 for the Cadets.
Game scoring honors went to Jerry Rook, Arkansas State's 6-5 sophomore, with 21 points. Sophomore Dick Martini led the Citadel with 19.
The Cadets out-rebounded Arkansas State 43-28. Arkansas State is now 13-9, the Citadel 3-19.

Some Facts About Life in Arkansas

By J. C. STILLMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
"Uncle Dave" Roung, Osceola law officer for 44 years, but now retired at age 74, recalls that he may be the only marshal ever to use a coffin as both a jail and a cure.
Roung was night marshal back in the early 1920s, when Osceola was a small village. One night he had to arrest a man for public drunkenness.
Having no one to watch the marshal's office, and being without a jail, Roung simply popped his charge into a coffin in the basement of the courthouse.
He said he would check on him from time to time—but the last time he looked in, the man had disappeared. He apparently sobered up enough to realize where he was, Roung reported.
"I never saw him in Osceola again," he said.
Roung became chief deputy for south Mississippi County in 1943 and served in that position until he retired last month.
Mrs. Lucy Falls of Jonesboro and a daughter of hers, Mrs. Doc Lawson of Detroit, Mich., are having a hard time visiting each other.
Mrs. Falls fell recently at her home and broke her hip.
This prompted Mrs. Lawson to plan to visit her.
But while helping to do some decorating in her home at Detroit, Mrs. Lawson fell and broke her leg and arm.
Gurden Whittener of Eureka Springs has come up with a catch of "twin bass."
Each of the two fish he caught in Lake Leatherwood recently was 25 inches long. One weighed eight pounds, three ounces. The other weighed eight pounds, five ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Gadbury of Booneville have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. They were married Feb. 21, 1898 in the Indian Territory near what is now Duncan, Okla.

No Medicare Action Before Next Year

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress won't decide on president Kennedy's health care program before next year, key supporters and opponents agreed today.
The President is hopeful of quicker action on his renewed plea to provide care for the aged through an increase in Social Security taxes. At his news conference Thursday he said, "I think we might let the bill by this year."
But clearly aware of the long road ahead Kennedy also remarked that the measure "has the problem of coming out of the Ways and Means Committee."
This committee is just getting into stride in its work on a more complex and higher-priority Kennedy program—the tax reduction and revision bill.
Public hearings on this measure are expected to run through next month and committee consideration through May.
There is no prospect whatever, reliable sources said, that the committee will take up the health bill before the House acts on the tax measure, perhaps in June, and if the Senate passes the tax bill and a conference to adjust differences is necessary, this would mean a further interruption in the progress of health legislation.
Even Rep. Cecil R. King, D-Calif., chief House sponsor of the measure to provide hospital benefits for some 18 million aged persons, stopped short of predicting final action this year.
King said he hopes the Ways and Means Committee and the House will act favorably this year. This would leave the struggle in the Senate still to come.
In the Senate, there is no disposition to try again last year's maneuver of forcing a Senate vote first by tackling the health measure onto some other tax legislation. Last year's attempt resulted in a close defeat for the administration.
Supporters have never been able to muster a majority of the Ways and Means Committee for any version of a Social Security health program. Some say the chances of a reversal grow better with time—especially as the 1964 presidential and congressional election approaches.
